74 Acres with Homesite Power connected and Dams.

This once beautiful property needs someone with a big truck and bobcat or like to clean up what the previous tenants have left behind. The current owner would like the property sold and due to illness is unable to do what's required to bring this property back from the brink . The property itself is a beautiful, quiet, gently undulating property with easy access to the home site. It has 3 dams each with water still in them. There is a 6m x6m garage which was used as a living space power pole right along side the shed and an older style caravan for the guests.

If you are prepared to do a little work to clean up the mess left behind you would benefit and own a beautiful piece of country at Good Night. The perimeter of the property is fully fenced.

Call today to make a time for an inspection.
