Home Hill's Whimsical Wonder!

Be transported to another era as you enter this uniquely beautiful Queenslander. This home is situated over two land titles equaling 2023m² of luscious immaculately presented yard, capturing your inner child as you feel like you are enchanted to a world where Alice in Wonderland resides.

This property is perfectly balanced with maintaining the homes original character and charm, whilst the modern twists make the functionality of this property a dream to live in.

This home boasts two bathrooms, four spacious bedrooms, an electric cast iron stove in the kitchen, and an open-concept layout that includes the dining and living rooms are all abundant in space and character. You will be captivated by a unique set of sitting areas for taking in the allure of the surroundings. This historic home is enhanced in charm by the decorative timber fretwork, laser-cut panels, arches, and brackets, casement windows and french doors found throughout. Internal VJ walls, the 150cm polished, pine timber floors complete this traditional Queenslander, and the high 3.5-meter ceilings give the house a very spacious feel.
